

Japanese language course for job-hunting

For job-hunting activities in autumn

International students who are aiming to find a job in a Japanese company, let's learn Japanese together for job-hunting!

Date

2026. 10.17 Sat ~ 11.21 Sat

10:30-12:00 * Only the 6th session 10:00-12:00

Venue

Hyogo International House

1-2-8 Wakinohama-cho, Chuo-ku, Kobe

Eligibility

International Students at universities, grad schools, etc.

Taking the course during the 3rd year of undergraduate or 1st year of master's course is recommended!

* Students are required to communicate in at least upper-intermediate level Japanese to participate in this course.

Instructor

HARA Manami

National qualification Career Consultant
Instructor of the G-Navi Career Development
Support Program

1	10/17 Sat 10:30-12:00 1F Nadacom Station	- Job-hunting process in Japan - Self-analysis
2	10/24 Sat 10:30-12:00 1F Nadacom Station	- Self-promotion - Company-analysis
3	10/31 Sat 10:30-12:00 1F Nadacom Station	- Ideal candidate profile ✓ HR stuff will attend!
4	11/7 Sat 10:30-12:00 2F Seminar Room1	Preparation for interview
5	11/14 Sat 10:30-12:00 2F Seminar Room 1	Preparation for written test
6	11/21 Sat 10:00-12:00 1F Nadacom Station	- Mock interview ✓ HR stuff will attend!

Apply Now ▼

Organizer : Kobe University Center for Global Engagement

Operation cooperation : Career Design Planning Division, Kobe University Co-op

Contact

Kobe University Center for Global Engagement IKEDA Hiroto
078-803-5280 h.ikeda@people.kobe-u.ac.jp

